Alaska Railroad seeks new President & CEO

The Alaska Railroad Corporation Board of Directors is now accepting applications for the position of President & Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Alaska Railroad.

The President & CEO position is responsible for the day-to-day management of the affairs and operations of the corporation. The position reports directly to the seven-member ARRC Board of Directors.

The Alaska Railroad is seeking a decisive leader with strong business experience. Applicants should have experience in the transportation industry or have an in-depth understanding of supply chain management. Experience working in the Alaska business community is preferred.

The Railroad offers year-round passenger and freight train service and is a self-sustaining, state-owned corporation. With over 650 miles of track, the Alaska Railroad serves over 13 different municipalities and boroughs, connecting ports and communities from the Gulf of Alaska to the Interior. Headquartered in Anchorage, the Alaska Railroad has nearly 800 full-time employees and generates over $170 million in revenue yearly. The corporation's assets are valued at over $860 million dollars.

Individuals interested in applying for the position should send their resumes to ceosearch@akrr.com before June 11, 2010. More information regarding the President & CEO position can be found at www.alaskarailroad.com/ceosearch.
